FUNDS ARE NEEDED BY CHILDREN'S HOME

Marshall Children in Home Receiving Destitute Children and Placing them in Homes.

W. H. Collins, financial agent for the Kentucky Children's Home Society, was in Benton Wednesday soliciting funds for the work. Several destitute Marshall county children are in this home which receives neglected children not eligible to church or lodge homes and cares for them until proper homes can be found. It is one of the most worthy charitable enterprises in the state.

The first of July there were 279 children in the home. During the year 625 children were in the home, many having been placed during the twelve months. There are 1,111 children in homes in the field. The society also visits children which have been placed in homes to see that they are in the proper environment. The society is non denominational and non-political. Its accounts are audited annually by the state and the home is annually inspected by the state.

Contributions to the society may be sent to W. H. Collins, 1155 South 28th street, Louisville, Ky.

Eight-tenths of the pianos in this country are always out of tune, according to the president of the national association of piano tuners, with the result that many thousands of dollars of the $900,000,000 spent annually for musical education, are wasted. He explains that, when the instrument is out of tune, the student's ear is likely to be harmfully affected.

BOY RAISES TON LITTER

J. C. Skidmore, Jr., a 12 year old Henry county junior agriculture club boy, raised a litter of 11 purebred Hampshire pigs to weigh 2,145 pounds when 180 days old. The litter attracted much attention in the community, and when sold at Eminence it was viewed by more than 200 farmers. The litter brought $11 a cwt., or 50 cents above the Louisville top price for the day.

Morse Facing Trial In Daughter's Death

Paducah, Ky., October 13. — The trial of Ben Morse, 35, Paducah mechanic, who was charged with having fatally poisoned his daughter, Margaret Morse, 17, in an indictment returned Tuesday by the McCracken county grand jury, is set for today in McCracken circuit court.

The indictment preferring a charge of wilful murder against Morse, charges that he gave his daughter a dose of mercury. The body of the girl, who died last May, and was buried in Marshall county, was exhumed by order of McCracken county and Marshall county courts for a post mortem and the state alleges that a chemical analysis of the stomach showed traces of mercuric poisoning.

Morse, who is represented by Attorneys John G. Lovett and R. L. Myre, has made no statement in connection with the charges against him.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By EDSON R. WAITE
Shawnee, Oklahoma

Earl R. Ernberger, President and General Manager of the Southwestern Light and Power Company, says:

"THAT this is an age of understanding between public utility companies and the public."

There is no more comparison between the sound public utility company of today and those of yesterday than there is between the modern automobile and the horseless carriage of twenty years ago.

Service across the country is a small task for the average motor car of today.

Service across the country is a daily task performed by the present-day public utility company.

Twenty years ago, service across the country was a feat to tax the capabilities of the two-cylinder speed chariots of the day.

And the maintenance of uninterrupted electric, gas, ice and transportation service across one city from day to day was an accomplishment of which few utility companies of twenty years ago could boast.

That was in the day before the public and the public utility companies became partners — partners in service.

Public utilities of today are built upon the foundation of courtesy, service, understanding, reciprocity, confidence, all a literal application of the Golden Rule, if you please.

Has it ever occurred to you that the thousands whose efforts are occupied daily in the extension of public utility service form in themselves a goodly portion of the general public? They have the same needs, the same service demands. They are entirely of the same clay.

Isn't it logical that they themselves would strive to maintain utility service at the highest standards possible, since with the rest of the public they must depend upon this service.

The public as a whole is more than friendly to the modern utility company; the people are behind it; they believe in it because the utility company has demonstrated itself to be worthy of this confidence.

VICTOR JONES SHOT SUNDAY AT DEXTER

Hardin Traveling Man Expected To Recover from Shotgun Wound at Close Range.

Victor Jones, aged 43, traveling salesman of Hardin, is in a critical condition at the Mason Memorial Hospital at Murray this week following a shooting last Sunday afternoon at Dexter. Jones is well known in Benton where he has frequently called in his work.

According to authorities the shooting followed a quarrel in McDaniel's store where several men had been drinking all day. The shooting was with a shotgun at close range, Jones was hit in the left arm and shoulder, the shot tearing a way the arm muscle. Unless complications set in he is expected to recover.

McDaniel left the store with his gun immediately after the shooting and went to the river bottoms. Later he telephoned from his home to the sheriff at Murray, stating that he had shot Jones and would surrender and appeared in Murray Monday afternoon.

Increased dairying in the South is foreshadowed by the opening in that region of additional industries to manufacture dairy products, according to the October issue of the Illinois Central Magazine. More than 10,000 persons recently assembled at Durant, Miss., to celebrate the establishment of a cheese factory there by the Kraft Cheese Company, and other plants are being established or contemplated by this company at Dyersburg, Tenn., Louisville, Miss., and Wichita Falls, Texas. Each plant is expected eventually to use 100,000 pounds of milk a day. The South's long season for green feed is another encouragement for the production of milk.

Willie and Solie Henson, of Route 7, were business visitors in Benton Tuesday.

OCTOBER TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT TO OPEN HERE MONDAY

Again New Record Set for Light Docket; Solomon, Ross, Shadwick Cases Main Importance.

EQUITY DOCKET WILL BE UP FOR TRIAL WEDNESDAY

Again a light docket is in order for the Marshall Circuit Court which will open its regular October term here next Monday. Circuit court dockets in Marshall county are steadily getting smaller and nowadays rarely more than a week is necessary to complete all business whereas not many years ago frequently three weeks were needed to wind up the docket.

Ordinary cases are set down for Monday with the equity docket due to come up Wednesday. Tuesday, the case of Harlan Solomon, who was convicted on a charge of possessing liquor and fined $100 and given 30 days in jail in lower court, will come up on appeal. The case of the commonwealth against Rolie Shadwick, charged with carnal knowledge, is also set for Tuesday.

Thursday, the 20th, the court will hear two cases involving Charley Ross. The first, charging petit larceny on an indictment brought in the June term and the second a civil action of J. R. Brandon, seeking a judgment of eighty odd dollars on a statement. Judge Bunk Gardner, of Mayfield will set as special judge in these cases, Judge Price being related to Mr. Brandon by marriage.

Also on the docket for this court is the case of Wallace Solomon against Charley Culp, seeking damages for the killing of a dog belonging to Solomon which Culp contends was killing his sheep. The case will be set Monday.

Not more than 60 cases are on the entire docket, both civil and criminal, this term; the shortest docket in the history of the Marshall Circuit court.

MORROW TO SPEAK HERE SATURDAY, 22

Former Governor to Address Marshall Voters at 1:30 P. M. In Behalf of G. O. P. Ticket.

Former Governor Edwin P. Morrow, who is now a member of the United States Railway Board, will address the voters of Marshall county here Saturday, October 22nd in the interest of the candidacy of Judge Flem D. Sampson, Republican candidate for governor, and the balance of the Republican ticket, it has been announced by the local Republican campaign committee.

Governor Morrow is on a campaign throughout the state, speaking for the Republican ticket, and is being greeted by large crowds, it is reported.

He will speak at the court house at 1:30 o'clock in the circuit court room. A large crowd is expected to hear him as he has a wide reputation as a campaign orator.

Tribute is paid in the October issue of the Illinois Central Magazine to Mississippi's magic spirit of development from within. Craddock Goins, editor of The Mississippi Builder, quotes L. O. Crosby, president of the Mississippi State Board of Development, to the effect that "real development, like charity, begins at home." Attention is called to the growth of dairying in the state under the encouragement of newly established creameries, condenseries and cheese factories, to the campaign for the elimination of the cattle tick, to the trend toward diversification of crops, to the increased interest in the re-creation facilities of the Gulf Coast.

vict were two entirely different things, and none knew it better than John Ballard. There would be a tremendous legal battle, that would see the best talent of the bar of the state, indeed, of the nation, arrayed against him. Jordan had limitless wealth, and to prevent a conviction he would pour it out like water.

The case must be prepared with the utmost care; nothing must or could be left to chance. Phil's threat, made just now, angered him more because it might mean that he would have to devote precious time that he could ill afford to defending himself, than because it was dangerous. It seemed to him unlikely in the extreme that anything really dangerous could come of that old business.

Yet he regretted bitterly that he had not as a boy done the right thing. He should have gone at once to the authorities, told what had happened, demanded an investigation and taken the consequences. They could not, he know now, have been very serious. He could almost smile as he looked back upon the panic he had been thrown into at the time. No use in thinking along those lines now, though.

His own folly, and weakness years ago had betrayed him, had put a weapon now in the hands of his enemies. Well—let them use it. The main issue, it seemed to him, would not be affected. They might ruin him—they could not save themselves, since he had refused to be coerced.

Jordan listening in his hotel room late that night to Phil's report scowled.

"God!" he said, "I wish we'd

DEMOCRATS GAIN IN REGISTRATION

Increasing Interest by Women Is Noted; Democrats Also Gain
In Eastern Section.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 13. (Special) — Two highly gratifying developments were noted at Democratic state campaign headquarters last week when the state chairman, Thomas S. Rhea, announced that an average gain of 25 per cent had marked the 1927 Democratic registration in fourth class cities having less than 5,000 population, as compared with the registration for 1926, and when Mrs. Mary B. Helm, chairman of the statewide women's organization, related the progress being made in the women's division.

In Harlan county, Mr. Rhea said, Democrats, in the city of Harlan had scored a registration gain of 70 per cent. At Princeton, Caldwell county, there was a majority gain of 400 per cent.

Commenting on the efforts being put forth by the Democratic women of the State, Mrs. Helm said:

"Reports from cities holding registration last week indicate that the percentage increase of the women qualifying for the ballot this year greatly exceeded that of the men. The registration was another indication of the great interest being taken by Kentucky women in the election this year.

"Since the campaign opened the response from women all over the State has been remarkable both for its earnestness and enthusiasm. During the last ten days we have named chairmen in ninety counties. By the end of this week we expect to have a chairman in every county.

"More women are attending political meetings than ever before. In some places rallies are being held and sponsored by the women alone. Mrs. Emma Guy Cromwell and Miss Ella Lewis, nominees on our State ticket, are in great demand to fill speaking appointments. Mrs. J. Campbell Cantrell is making a great 'hit' as a speaker and is devoting much of her time in the interest of the State ticket. I am proud of the splendid work being done by women in the present campaign.

SCOTT HANGS SELF TO BEAT STATE OF GUESOME VERDICT

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Russell Scott, former wealthy Canadian bridge promoter, who has narrowly escaped gallows sentence following his conviction on a charge of murder, tonight hanged himself in the Cook county jail.

His body was found in his cell by the jailer. He had hung himself with his belt.

The jailer said he had passed Scott's cell at 9:45 p. m., and he was all right, but when he passed again an hour later, he noticed the body.

Face's Sanity Hearing

Scott, convicted of the murder of Joseph Maurer, drug clerk, in a hold-up, had been in the cell since his return several months ago from an insane asylum where he had been discharged, after a sanity hearing to again face the penalty of death. He had a hearing in September and it was postponed to some time this month.

C. R. Wilkes writes from Christobal, Canal Zone: "I have been using Mendenhall's Chill & Fever Tonic for the past 15 years. In 1903, while living in Memphis, your tonic was recommended to me after the doctor and other chill tonics failed to cure me of chills and fever. After taking the first dose I never had another attack. I have traveled all over the southern country and canal zone where the worst types of malaria, chills and fevers prevail and have warded off all attacks by taking an occasional dose. When I cured myself of chronic chills and fever I took one bottle Mendenhall's Chill Tonic Regular, without arsenic, then followed with chill tonic Red Label containing arsenic, which completed the cure." Mendenhall's is the only scientific treatment for intermittent fever or chills, chronic malaria and bilious fever. Children take it and ask for more.

have all the facts before you act.

TO GET them all, from every possible source, is the first objective in General Motors. The Research Laboratories contribute some. These are nuggets, left in the crucible, after hundreds of ideas that looked good have been burned away. The Proving Ground contributes others. Dealers contribute. The public contributes. Every department contributes.
Through the whole organization runs a spirit of inquiry and of rigid insistence on proof.

OUT OF such thinking come the new models announced from time to time by Chevrolet,
Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Oakland, Buick, LaSalle,
Cadillac—all with Fisher Bodies. And by Frigidaire.
Each new model is a tested step forward. Nothing goes into it as a result of habit or guess or pride of opinion.

Nothing counts but hard-won facts, gathered and used with an open mind.

FIND LIPSTICKS CENTURIES OLD IN AUSTRIAN RUINS

That the lipstick is not a modern innovation is shown by interesting finds in lower Austria, where relics of the pre-stone age have been unearthed, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. Among the ruins were sticks of graphite, probably used as eyebrow pencils, lumps of ocher and receptacles containing rouge powder. This collection of cosmetics is possibly 25,000 years old.

GLASS PATROL ON MOTORROADS SAVES AUTO TIRES

One of the latest aids to motorists in California is a special patrol service to remove bits of broken glass from the highways, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. A man with motorcycle and sidecar keeps constant vigil over the roads, sweeping up fragments of glass, etc., that are likely to puncture tires. The plan will, no doubt save motorists thousands of dollars annually.

Their average live weight cost was $10 per cwt., their dressed weight cost $14.38 per cwt., and their yield 69.53 per cent meat. Reisz's seven pigs cost $11 per cwt. live weight and $14.22 per cwt. dressed weight, with a meat yield of 77.34 per cent. The cost of their dressed meat was, therefore, 16 cents per cwt. less than the cost of the meat obtained from the 124 miscellaneous hogs, in spite of the fact that they cost $1 per cwt. more in live weight. In addition, the meat from the ton litter is worth at least a half a cent a pound more."

How many motorists on the public highways have run one car 139,200 miles without an accident? Motor car operation may be safer on rails than on the highways, for the October issue of the Illinois Central Magazine reports that in the last fourteen and one-half years Foreman Joseph Cole at New Orleans has had charge of his rail motor car while it was moving over this distance and has covered that mileage without a single accident. Operator Oscar Bergeron and Relief-Man Alston Adams have handled the car for the last eight years. In addition to carrying workmen, this car also transports track, signal and gardening materials and moves flag shanties, tool houses and small offices as needed.

COUNTY BANKS HAVE DAIRY TRIP TICKETS

May Be Obtained from Seven Farmers Up to Saturday Night; Thereafter at Benton Banks.

More than 100 Marshall county farmers are expected to attend the National Dairy Show at Memphis next Tuesday, County Agent H. E. Hendricks announced Tuesday of this week. More than seventy-five have already signified their intention of making the trip on the special train and several more are expected to sign up before the train pulls out.

Tickets may be obtained this week from any of the county's five banks at Benton, Hardin, Gilbertsville and Birmingham or from H. C. Wood, Benton Route 1, Ellis Vance, Brewers; Esq. E. C. Ross, Route 7; Dan Gold, Route 5; Grant Pace, Hardin; Bernice Hastin, Briensburg or Will Rudolph, Sharpe.

After Saturday night, however, tickets must be obtained from one of the Benton banks. The fare for the round trip is only $4.55, the lowest fare ever offered to Memphis from this section. The train will leave here early Tuesday morning and will leave Memphis late that night.

Killing moths with electricity and kerosene has been successful on a truck farm near Danville, Va. The gardens are wired for electric lights to attract the tomato-worm moths and, as they fly close to the bulbs, they fall into pans of kerosene placed below the lamps. Before this trapping method was adopted, approximately half of the crop was lost. The farm owner estimates that a saving of from $2,000 to $4,000 has been realized yearly.

LEASE TOBACCO BARN FOR WINTER BASKETBALL GAMES

The large receiving station here of the tobacco association has been leased by the high school team for games this winter. An independent team from the town shares the lease.

The warehouse is a splendid place for basketball and many games are expected to be played there this winter between the county high teams.

Admission will be charged at games to pay the cost of the lease.

Senior News
By Myrtle McGregor

The Glee Club of Benton High School has been invited by Mrs. Clyde Vaughn, 2nd Vice president of F. D. E. A. to appear on their program Friday evening November 26. The invitation has been accepted and Mrs. L. L. Washburn has been selected as director of the club.

The Senior class met in regular session Monday, October 10, with president, John Gold Henson presiding. Class colors were selected and discussed.

At last the Senior Class has adopted its colors. After much discussion as to the relative merits of the various combinations offered, we adopted blue and silver as the colors of the Seniors of 1927.

We did not choose an Alice-blue, or cerise, or mauve, or any of the up-to-date, but certainly transient hues of the modern maid's vocabulary; but we selected that enduring shade that has gleamed through the ages in the rainbow of promise since God set His bow in the clouds. We choose the blue of truth for our foundation—the blue of the sky and the sea, and of all eternal things that are as true and as high as the heavens, and as deep and un-resting as the ocean. With this blue we blend the silver which symbolizes the price we must pay for all of life's rich gifts, and the price life must pay back to us for what we have to offer at her shrine. Silver is one of the greatest treasures of the earth, and as such signifies much to us in its promise of our power to wrest from the world the best it has to offer. There is likewise a ring of sincerity in the silver coin as it is dropped to the surface of the marble slab that speaks truth and real value, besides which the dull thud of lead, or the peculiar clang of brass is a mockery and a snare. Yes, it means all this to us and when, after passage of years, the silver threads begin to sprinkle with beautiful profusion the locks of our hair—may they speak of wisdom and attainment and of full life, rich with experience and achievement.

Yes, we blend the silver and blue Mingling worth with what is true,

Urging us to dare and do.
No half measured life we ask,
Strength for greater than our task.

Watered milk to fill or flask!
Out with any life so weak!
Tis for full-grown task we seek!
For men worth our steel we seek!

Sorrow will enrich our joys;
Life rebuild what death destroys,
Balance bringing perfect praise.
Weight with measure just and true.

With our watchword "Dare and Do."

Life's at-one-ment "Silver-Blue."
The high school girls met with Miss Faughn, Mr. Chambers and Mr. Williams Tuesday, October 11th and organized a basketball team.

The Intermediate Epworth League has raised $102 during the conference year.

The Annual Conference convenes in Memphis, Wednesday, November 16th.

The Ladies' Missionary Society met Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. M. Foust. A good program was rendered. All assessments are in full.

There were 158 in Sunday school last Sunday and 85 at church. Paul said he was not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation. Does it not seem that the preaching of the gospel is little appreciated when so many refuse to hear it after the Sunday school is over? We are trying to preach a gospel that will help people but no preacher can be his best with empty pews. We want you at Sunday school, but we want you at preaching also. We want AT LEAST 100 at church Sunday morning. It is to be hoped that you will be in your place to make one of that number.

WHEN YOU GRADUATE FROM CALVERT HIGH

To most of us there are days that must be dark and dreary. There are times when we cring from the aoidid mockery, from the emptiness and shallowness that seems to reward our living and striving.

After all life is not a dream or a fancy, it is a stern reality. What we ourselves can accomplish, enjoy and do for the up-building of man, are our achievements. Little do we in our school days think of preparing ourselves to our best advantage in the undertaking that we must go out into the world to conquer. It has been said that we are in the world for a purpose, so why not make the best out of life that is afforded us.

Our school days will live fresh in our memory, when we are old and gray, as the seniors of Calvert City wish to make this their bumper year in number and in grades, because they are the smartest class in school.

The Seniors realize that they must soon depart from this good old institution that has been as a mother to them. To go out into the world to gather the moss that evokes their existence.

Wherever we may roam, when seen by strangers say "I wonder where that young fellow is from, he seems to be standing on top of the world", and some friend of his would say, "Why he is from old Calvert HI."

We thank our teachers and friends for making our school a first class high school, for it may mean so much to us when we shall leave to go to a higher institution of learning.

Remember dear friends that if you are not in high school that you are losing something more valuable than jewels. Go to high school, learn the art of associating with fellow beings, learn that which is priceless, the art of cooperation, and I think that when you have graduated you
